Josie Waldorf

name.1234@example.com | (123) 123 - 1234

Education

Bachelor of Science: Biological Data Sciences | Oregon State University | June 2022
Focus: Genomics | Minor: Computer Science

- GPA: 3.76
- Relevant Courses: Calculus. Statistics. Methods of Data Analysis. Web Development. Data Structures. Intro to Databases. Analysis of Algorithms.

Skills

- Programming: C++, C, Python, R, JavaScript, HTML, Node.js, and SQL.
- Languages: English, Spanish &, French (conversant).

Experience

COP Research Assistant | Oregon State University / March 2021 – June 2022

- Studied natural products and their influence on pharmacognosy.
- Developed machine learning program to improve the prediction of structures of natural products using genomic data, using scikit-learn.
- Identified and compiled 250 $C_{starters}$ into a database to initialize testing.

Pharmacy Technician | Walgreens Pharmacy / June 2020 - Present

- Calculate dosages, dispense medication, and package 90 prescriptions/day.
- Assist and identify recurring and new customers, using excellent customer service skills.
- Audit inventory for outdated drugs, including restocking inventory.

Leadership Activities

Officer | College of Ag. Sciences - Club Leadership Team / 2021 – Present

- Coordinate monthly meetings attended by representatives from 30 CAS clubs.
- Liaise and collaborate with club leaders to provide resources and connections.
- Plan college-wide events such as the spring industry tour and Ag & Natural Sciences Day.

Co-President | Pre-Pharmacy Society / 2021 – 2022

- Reorganized society's structure and mission by collaborating with COP faculty.
- Organized 6 meetings and activities per term, including a volunteer opportunity.
- Created social media accounts and content for use in member recruitment, increasing followers 20% over the year period.

Web-Master | Girls Empowerment, Engineering, & Outreach / 2021 – Present

- Collaborate to plan 5 outreach programs per year, including Engineering the World and STEM camps
- Contribute to planning group events to create and pack STEM boxes.
- Manage and update social media and web pages, increasing engagement by 15% over time in role